TRAVEL ALLOWANCE

Grab your groom, and go! Honeyfund.com grants you the honeymoon of your dreams. Guests can gobble up anything and everything—airfare, hotels, spa treatments, activities, champagne for two.

TIP: Send them a postcard.

GOOD-KARMA GIFTING

You can't start your wedding planning off on a more positive foot than by registering at changingthepresent.org. Select the causes (like animal rescue or cancer research) closest to your heart and guests can fund the charities of your choice.

BONUS: They'll also get a nice little tax deduction.

BE CONSTRUCTIVE

Ever heard of getting a toilet as a wedding gift? Depositagift.com let's you plot your dream home and put each item, indoors and out, up for grabs. Friends and family then donate moola towards specific features (solar panels! siding! washer!) outlined in the registry.

TIP: Throw a house party after you've set up shop (sans house-warming gifts, duh!).
